

Kim Golter President and CEO, Jeremiah's Promise

As president and CEO of Jeremiah's Promise, (an organization which assists young women who are leaving foster care at age 18), Kim Golter has been able to assist 30 women to date. Their initiative is to take a small group and intentionally heal, transform, educate and guide them toward effective and long-lasting change. In the future, Jeremiah's Promise hopes to add a men's home, and to export their model to communities nationwide. The name comes from the Old Testament scripture found in Jeremiah (29:11), "For I know the plans I have for you...plans to prosper you and not to harm you. Plans for hope and a future."
